RAISING MONEY FOR OUR INJURED VETERANS BY JOHN IMBODEN

OUR TROOPS

American Shooting Centers in Houston (Texas) played host to the 4th Annual Houston sporting clays event benefitting the Homes for Our Troops organization January 28th and 29th. It's a national non-profit, non-partisan, charitable organization founded in 2004 to provide support for building accessible housing for severely injured service men and women. The Veterans Administration can provide a Specially Adapted Housing Grant for up to $63,780 – Homes for Our Troops then bridges this with its donations to provide a home at no cost to the injured Serviceperson. Homes for Our Troops is a very efficient organization and returns 92% of the donations it receives to benefit the Serviceperson.

American Shooting Centers had a carnival like atmosphere for the two day event with a petting zoo and inflatable slides for the kids. For the big kids, the 6th Cavalry Historical Association pitched a Vietnam era encampment with some of their 'heavy iron'. The 6th also performed a mock helicopter troop entertainment provided over two days.

At some point during this spectacle, a sporting clays tournament broke out. Title sponsors, Ralph and Shirley Alexander, were also helped by generous donations of money, time, and/or material from Energy Corporation of America, KBR, Schlumberger, Boots & Coots, Halliburton and numerous others. Ed Arrighi and the staff of ASC ensured the 100 bird sporting course was up and running for the two flights of shooters per day over the course of the two days. The shoot was a non-registered 5 man team affair with individual Lewis Class format that saw almost 1,000 shooters participate over the two days. iClays provided the registration and scoring, and it

MENTAL MANAGEMENT for Sporting Clays

"I really don't think I could have won the US Open and two World Champion team titles without... Mental Management Training."

— Wendell Cherry

We all know it.

90% of the shooting game is mental.

So what's your mental game plan?

At Mental Management Systems, we've trained more champion shooters than anyone, anywhere. Learn the mental game from people who have used it to win dozens of World and Olympic Championships themselves, and then have taught others to get those championship results too.

MENTAL MANAGEMENT SYSTEMS

Learn the mental system that has produced national and world sporting clays champions in a pack-filled two days of information and shooting application at the Dallas Gun Club. Each clinic limited to 4 shooters. $2000 each.
